

Cashmere High School FOUNDATION

Term 3 is traditionally a very busy term in the school year with senior school exams taking place, as well as many sporting and cultural events and, for the seniors, the much-anticipated School Formal.

Passing of Former Principal

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of one of Cashmere High School's previous principals, Mr John Murdoch, who died suddenly at Christchurch Hospital on July 17th, aged 90.

John Murdoch joined the Cashmere High School staff in 1957 as a science teacher. He resigned at the end of 1961 to do country service, then returned in 1964 as Senior Chemistry Master...

Cashmere High School Wins Smokefree Rockquest 2023!

Two bands and one soloist from Cashmere High School entered the 2023 Rockquest in Canterbury. One of those bands, Sandfly, won the Canterbury Finals in June and is now waiting to hear if their submission for the national final selection has been successful.

This follows on from Cashmere High School's success at Showquest in May, when Cashmere High School were the winners for the Canterbury region and went to to achieve 4th in the national event.

Alumni News

Congratulations to Cameron Avery (Class of 2015) who won the Senior Men's 10,000m event at the New Zealand Cross Country Championships held in Taupo 29-30 July.

Cameron also placed 3rd in the Gold Coast Half Marathon at the start of July.

It was recently announced that the 1960s Australian-based pop singer Dinah Lee (Diane Jacobs, Class of 1961) will be doing a 4-city tour of NZ in October with iconic music star Tami Neilson.

Dinah Lee, known as the "Queen of the Mods", rose to fame in the 1960s with hits such as Do the Blue Beat, Don't you Know Yockomo, and Reet Petite.

We're always keen to hear what our alumni have been up to. If you have recently achieved success in the sporting, arts, business or academic fields please let us know so that we can share your success with your former schoolmates.
